

Volunteer Chaplains

Integricare is a not for profit Christian organisation committed to providing high quality family and children's services since 1882. Currently it is seeking to appoint volunteer chaplains to support a body of passionate and caring staff across our Homebush and Rockdale services within the Sydney Metropolitan Area.

Working in a trusting, open environment of mutual respect and shared mission, this role will allow you to further your call in Christian service as an integral part of an organisation with a strong heritage of excellence in all we do.

As volunteer chaplain you will provide pastoral care of our staff, as well as parents and children who attend our programs. The role will include one on one support; counselling; leading devotions where appropriate; working with staff, as well as working with local churches and clergy.

Naturally, our volunteer chaplain will be actively involved in their church community and will have refined their skills through a history of Christian ministry. They will have an easy rapport with all people, and be able to work without supervision. Training in clinical pastoral education would be an advantage. A Working With Children check is required.
